To insure advertisements to appear in the News the copy must be in the office by 6 p. m., Thursday evening. We want to thank most sincerely those who have been and will continue to be prompt with their copy on Wednesday and Thursday morning, for our men can do only so much in a given time, and when it is crowded in at the last moment we cannot handle it satisfactorily to all concerned, but is brought early it will receive more time and naturally you will get better service. Please give us your copy as early as possible. The News

U. S. LAND OFFICE, TUCUMCARI
October 29, 1912

Gentlemen:—As a matter of publication, I give you below copy of Assistant Commissioner's letter dated October 26, 1912:—In reply to your letter of October 18, 1912, you are advised that the act of August 24, 1912, (Public 302) modified that provision of the act of June 6, 1912, explained in paragraph 22 of the circular of July 15, 1912, so that an election need not be filed by persons holding notices made prior to June 6, 1912, and desiring to make proof under the old law. If, however, a homesteader has filed an election to prove up under the old law in due time and now desires to prove up under the new law, he should be required to file a written withdrawal of his election and thereafter be allowed to make proof under the new law. Very respectfully,
R. A. Prentice, Register
N. V. Gallagors, Receiver

Be Happy!
Happy the girl, or woman, who has never suffered from any of the diseases of womanhood! Or, if she has been a sufferer, happy is she if she has learned of the wonderful benefits of Cardui, the woman's tonic!
Cardui is a gentle, tonic remedy, for women's ailments. It is a natural medicine—safe, harmless, purely vegetable. It has been in successful use for more than 50 years. It has cured thousands. It should do the same for you.
TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic
Mrs. Mary Neely, of Denver, Tenn., says, "I think there is no tonic on earth, as good as Cardui. I used it with the very best results. I had backache and nearly everything a woman could suffer with, until I took Cardui. Now, I feel better than I have for two years. I shall always recommend Cardui to other suffering women. I can't praise it too highly. As a medicine for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui is safe and reliable. Try it, today."
